FEATURED CALIFORNIA TRAFFIC SCHOOL ONLINE

The successful completion of a course from one of the approved California traffic schools may prevent violations from damaging your driving record. While in many cases a course just might get a traffic ticket dismissed, attending traffic school can also enhance your driving knowledge and skill level, and it may increase your overall safety awareness so that you, your family, and other drivers can be safer on the roads.

Where to Start?

There are four steps to becoming a licensed driver in California. They are:

1. Complete a driver education class, such as the one offered by our sponsor.
2. Apply for a learner's permit and hold it for six months (must be 15-17 to obtain a permit).
3. Learn driving skills in a formal driver's training program (in-car instruction) and practice with your

FLORIDA FIRST TIME DRIVER COURSE (F.A.T.A.) SPONSOR

FLORIDA
DrivingCourse.com

Never had a FL drivers license? All first time drivers in the State of Florida are required by law to take a Florida drivers ed course prior to applying for a Florida drivers license. DMV.ORG recommends FloridaDrivingCourse.com as a good choice for Florida drivers ed.

First-Time Driver (F.A.T.A.) - FloridaDrivingCourse.com

Enroll in the FloridaDrivingCourse.com four-hour class from the privacy of your own home and complete it at your convenience. This course will allow you to learn about how alcohol and other drugs affect your ability to drive, FL laws and responsibilities, safe driving techniques, and how to increase your awareness on Florida's roadways. You will also have the option of taking your FL drivers license written exam online after completing the course—as long as you are younger than 18 years old.

FloridaDrivingCourse.com also features driving courses for:

- Basic Driver Improvement
- Mature Driver Program
- Eight-Hour Intermediate Driver Improvement
- Florida 12-Hour Advanced Driver Improvement
